BACKGROUND

This Privacy Policy describes my privacy practices in plain language, keeping legal and technical jargon to a minimum, to make sure you understand the information provided. However, to achieve this objective, I would like to explain the following concepts:

What is Personal Data?

Personal Data is any information that relates to an identified or identifiable living individual. Different pieces of information, which collected together can lead to the identification of a particular person, also constitute Personal Data.

What is Processing?

"Processing" means and covers virtually any handling of data.

What law applies?

I act as the data controller in accordance with Germany’s Data Protection Act (Bundesdatenschutzgesetz) (“BDSG”) and the EU’s General Data Protection Regulation (“GDPR”).

Purpose and legal basis of processing

In accordance with the BDSG and GDPR, I need to have both a purpose and a legal basis to process Personal Data. The purposes are:

- providing Waitingtimes Live and its functions and contents,
- responding to contact requests and communicating with users and other interested parties, and
- security measures.

Of course, we can only do that if we have at least one of the following legal bases or in other words lawful reasons to do so. Unless specifically described below, we typically link the above purposes to one of the following:

- consent,
- to fulfill my services and carry out contractual obligations,
- to fulfill my legal obligations, and
- to protect my legitimate interests.
